TEMP/CASUAL

POETRY COMPETITION

'Disillusioned Poet?'

Spent Ambition Theatre Company want to hear from you.

Temp/Casual... is a play about struggling to remain positive with your creativity whilst barely coping economically - poetry is one of these creative strands. Martin, one of the central characters, is torn between writing for love or money when he finds himself winning a 'not so prestigious' regional poetry prize, giving him the opportunity to offer up his creative writing to the sides of stagecoach buses and novelty keyrings. As a tribute to Martin's struggle we are running a similar competition alongside our production.

To apply... please send a poem, of not more than 200 words, on the broad theme of life in Manchester to:

isobelmcarthur@spentambition.com

Entries will be judged and shortlisted by exceptional local poet Adam O'Riordan who will announce the winners on opening night, Wednesday 18th May 2011. There will also be an opportunity to hear your poem, read by one of our cast. Prizes are being kindly donated by independent Manchester publishing house Comma Press.

Temp/Casual opens at the Contact Theatre 18th-21st May 2011

Box Office: 0161 274 0600 or book online www.contact-theatre.org
